The myWD[™] Partner Program designed just for you!

myWD is a program specially created to help you service the needs of your business and improve your profitability. The program offers a comprehensive lineup of benefits including direct incentives, exciting member-only promotions and exclusive access to a rich set of marketing tools.

It all starts when you register at www.mywd.com

There's a tier just right for you.

Tier	Minimum Points Required*	Minimum Average Points Per Qualifying Purchase Unit	Minimum Points Required for Rewards
Silver	n/a	n/a	5,000
Gold	30,000	20	30,000
Diamond	75,000	20	75,000

*For the first earning period of membership, there is no minimum point level for partners to attain Silver status. After that partners must make at least one purchase per Points Earning Period from Western Digital-authorized distributors to be eligible for Silver status.

Average Points for example, if you buy 10 products worth 20 points each (200 pts) and 5 products worth 10 points (50 pts), then your average points would be 16.7 (250/15 = 16.7).

You may already be earning points!

Any qualifying purchase made through eligible Western Digital-authorized distributors during the current earning period will be automatically credited to your account, and will be counted toward your points redemption at the end of the current earning period.

Points earning period

There are two 6-month earning periods for Silver partners, and four 3-month earning periods for Gold and Diamond partners. All accumulated points will expire at the end of each earning period.

Qualifying products

Point values for qualifying products are posted on the points award table, available for download on the myWD portal. This list will be updated at the beginning of each earning period.

Redeeming your points is easy

Upon meeting the minimum points qualifying level (page 1), points earned will be automatically converted into cash rewards at the end of the earning period. Payments will be automatically issued to the registered partner's company.

Minimum points qualifying level

Partners need to meet the minimum points qualifying level to be eligible for points conversion and cash rewards. It will take approximately six weeks for processing of the cash rewards.

FAQs

Q. Who is this program designed for?

This program is designed for VARs (value added resellers), system integrators, solution providers and managed service providers who buy Western Digital products through the distribution channel and/or resell and integrate Western Digital products for end customers.

Q. How do I qualify as a myWD Partner?
